

BIO-DATA of Smt.Vanja.B.Pandit

Smt Vanaja .B.Pandit was born on May 9th,1942 in Mandya to K.Venkataramaiah and Jayamma couple of Hosur. An advocate by profession K.Venkataramaiah practiced in Salem,Tamil Nadu. Smt.Vanja.B.Pandit had her schooling in Salem and went on to complete her graduation in Tamil Literature in the year 1962 from Madra University.

Marriage with Prof.B.S.Pandit brought her to Mysore in the year 1967.Since then there has been no looking back for this charming lady who bore the ups and downs of life in the same pace as her late husband. With a large family to take care of and with limited resources Smt Vanaja Pandit managed a large household with a smile always!!

She went on to obtain her masters degree in English literature from the University Of Mysore in the year 1977.

When Geetha Shishu Shikshana Sangha started taking shape in the 1980's she served as one of it's founding members .Always the one to be by the side of her husband in any of his ventures , she stood strongly by him and shared his dream of building one of the best educational institutions in karnataka with the same passion and dedication as he did. It would not be wrong if one said that the other name for this great lady is "sacrifice". The troubles and travails this couple faced while building this premier institute is unthinkable..but the determination kept them going. She went on to become the Vice-President of GSSS® till the demise of her beloved husband Prof. B.S.Pandit when she was unanimously elected to the post held by him as Hon. Secretary in November 2008.

In her stint as secretary GSSS she has undertaken many developmental projects like putting up a new block for the pre-university college in the siddharthanagar campus, renovation of the MBA building in Metagalli etc.

A mother of two daughters and blessed with four grand children she manages her time efficiently and equally between carrying forward the goals of GSSS® and love to her grandchildren.
